Where You Get To Share Your Story

Welcome to a newsletter that has you in mind!

“Then answered all the wicked men and men of Belial, of those that went with David, and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them ought of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead them away, and depart.” 1 Samuel 30:22.

Praise the Lord, and welcome back as we continue with our series: You Are Important! Part V. Please don't forget it! When we fail to realize this truth, it has disastrous results!

You see, it is the devil's job to defame and rob you of deserved recognition. He knows the Bible teaches that you should esteem one another more highly than yourself. But he doesn't like that. Therefore, he will work to prevent it. You need to know who you are and the importance of your role in any mission.

Let's go a bit further. You are also important to your neighborhood and your community. Yes, you truly are. In fact, our importance is oftentimes lost on these places. If people only knew that their neighborhoods are kept quiet by praying folks, folks who believe and trust in God. If they only knew about the prayers that are going up on their behalf! My God!

Look! Both services demand the same goal, the same sacrifice, and the same zeal. Whether in the front or at the back, the demand is the same! We are going to take a look at these three important elements. Let's go back and revisit David and his men.

The men “at the base or at the rear” weren't there because they were lazy, scared, or had an attitude. Though exhausted, they were just as motivated as those who went on to fight. They had purpose! And purpose is important to any undertaking.

Look! Their families had been kidnapped, too! But someone had to stay with the baggage. If not, the rest of the force might not have caught up with the enemy. Even though the stuff they had was important to them, it would have slowed their pursuit. Therefore, important folks were left in the rear with important stuff! If we are asked to do something, it's because it's important and needs to be done!

Staying behind was a form of sacrifice. What if it was your family out there, somewhere in the hands of the enemy? You would want to be there, right? But these men had to make a sacrifice.

You may feel that you should be up front; that your service is badly needed; that you could really make a contribution. But when you are asked to stay in the rear with the stuff, you are really making a sacrifice. And when you are asked to stay in the rear, you begin to call on those Christian attributes: Humility, Submissiveness, and Cooperation. Because now you realize that if you humble yourself before the hands of the Almighty God, He will raise you up because you are important! Take a moment and give Him some praise for allowing you to enlist in His army!

Therefore, with the same goal, sacrifice, and zeal as those who pursued the enemy, David's 200 men did their job of guarding the baggage! And when David returned he found important folks watching over important stuff. There's more. Stay tuned!

The Power of The Oil

2 Kings 4:2 (NIV)

“Elisha replied to her, How can I help you? Tell me, what do you have in your house?” “Your servant has nothing there at all,” she said, “except a small jar of olive oil.”

Have you ever found yourself like the woman in this story—desperate for provision, standing on the brink of loss, and unsure where help would come from? This widow cried out to Elisha because her situation was dire. Creditors were demanding payment, and if she could not repay what she owed, her sons would be taken as slaves. Imagine the weight of that fear—the anguish of knowing your children’s future was hanging in the balance.

When Elisha asked her a simple yet profound question—“What do you have in your house?”—her response seemed insignificant even to her: “Your servant has nothing there at all... except a small jar of olive oil.” To the woman, what she possessed appeared inadequate and ineffective. Yet that “small jar” was the very thing God intended to use.

How often do we overlook what God has already placed in our hands because it seems too small, too ordinary, or not enough? There are moments when we pray for God to move, not realizing that the provision we need is already within reach. When we surrender what we have to God, He has the power to multiply it beyond our expectations.

Elisha instructed the woman to gather empty jars from her neighbors—not just a few, but as many as she could find. As her sons brought jar after jar, she poured the oil, and it kept flowing until every vessel was filled. What she once viewed as “little” became more than enough. That oil saved her sons, cleared her debt, and secured her future.

I challenge you today to take a fresh look around your own home—and your own life. What has God already given you that you may be overlooking? Don’t dismiss what is right in front of you while waiting for something bigger or more dramatic. Sometimes the miracle begins with what’s already in the house.

Victory often starts with surrender—and God does the multiplying.

Marriage Matters – Master the Basics (Part 2)

As we continue this series called Marriage Matters, I will highlight one of the most important factors that lead to success or failure. But first, with humility and exceeding joy, I announce that my wife and I have published our first joint book, “Building Blocks of a Magnificent Marriage.” The book identifies and highlights some of the “basic” tenets that create a healthy marriage. It is a practical faith-based manual that will strengthen and elevate your marriage. (Available on Amazon).

We use the alphabet (A-Z) to reveal 34 foundational “building blocks” that describe essential habits, attitudes, and relational disciplines necessary for achieving a healthy marriage. For example, the letter “X” represents X-Ray because we must see our spouses as God sees them. We must look beyond the surface and see the heart and soul of our spouse. That is why we are called “soulmates.” Each chapter is a succinct masterclass that represents a letter of the alphabet and emphasizes specific words that lay the groundwork for a MAGNIFICENT MARRIAGE! Please help us get this book/message into the hands of every couple.

Now, let me address the opening sentence. What is the one thing that leads to success or failure? The answer is “mastering the basics.” One of the primary reasons married couples struggle is that they overlook and minimize the importance of the fundamentals. If you look closely at the lives of highly successful and effective people, most, if not all, were optimistic, determined, and they “mastered” the basics.

For example, when you first learn to play an instrument, you spend countless hours working on basic scales and chords before moving to more advanced music techniques. While playing these scales and chords over and over again, it can become so boring and mundane that you think of quitting. However, those who stick with it over time get so much better that playing becomes effortless, and they start to realize and appreciate the value of mastering basic scales and chords. How well one masters the scales and chords is what makes the difference between OK, good, great, and MAGNIFICENT. The same is true for marriage.

When a construction company builds a house, the first thing they do is lay a good concrete foundation because a house without a solid foundation will eventually crack and most likely crumble over time. A marriage is apt to do the same thing. So, the foundation of anything and everything is critical.

Mastering the basic tenets of relationships and consistently applying them will build a healthy marriage. Be advised, there are no shortcuts. If you commit to the fundamental building blocks, your marriage can become what it was always meant to be: a safe place, a joyful union, a living testimony of love, and a legacy that outlives you. Each building block contributes to the well-being and holistic health of your union, your family, the community, society, and the nation. Many of the challenges we face today are rooted in the fabric of the family that begins with the relationship between a husband and wife. May your home be filled with love, laughter, peace, and purpose. And may your marriage truly become magnificent is my prayer.

When marriages are solid, families are strong. When families are strong, communities are healthy. When communities are healthy, society is in harmony. When society is in harmony, God smiles upon the nation.

Pneumatology Part I

Greetings, everyone!

In recent months, we have studied the Doctrine of God and Christology. This month, I will address Pneumatology, specifically focusing on the Holy Spirit. The term pneuma is a Greek word that translates as “breath.” The suffix -ology means “the study of.” Therefore, when combined, the term refers to the study of “breath,” which is often associated with the Holy Spirit in Christian theology.

I remember as a child going to a prayer meeting with my mother and my brothers at the Temple of Christ Church. Cushions were placed on the floor to support our knees, enabling us to kneel comfortably on the wooden chairs in front of us during prayer. My mother explained to me that through prayer and worship, an individual is tarrying (waiting) for the Holy Spirit. Tarrying for the Holy Ghost is a Pentecostal practice where believers wait, pray, and praise to receive the baptism of the Holy Spirit, usually shown by speaking in tongues. In biblical texts, the Holy Spirit is represented through various symbols and titles. This month, we will examine the different symbolic representations of the Holy Spirit.

Symbols of the Holy Spirit in the Bible

The Holy Spirit is represented in Scripture through several important symbols. Each symbol carries a distinct meaning and significance, helping believers to understand the nature and work of the Holy Spirit.

- Cloud and Light: These symbolize the Holy Spirit’s guidance and presence, as well as clarity and illumination in the lives of believers (Exodus 13:21; Exodus 40:38; Psalm 105:39).
- Living Water: This represents the Spirit’s role in refreshing and sustaining spiritual life. (John 7:37-39; John 4:10-14; Revelation 21:6).
- Anointing with Oil: The act of anointing signifies consecration and empowerment by the Holy Spirit (Exodus 30:25-30; 1 Samuel 16:13; Mark 6:13; 1 John 2:27).
- Imposition of the Hands: This symbolizes the transmission of spiritual gifts and blessings through the Holy Spirit (Genesis 48:14; Numbers 27:18; Acts 8:17, 19:6).
- Fire: Fire is a symbol of purification, passion, and the transformative power of the Spirit (Isaiah 6:6-7; Matthew 3:11; Acts 2:3-4; Hebrews 12:29).
- Dove: The dove signifies peace, gentleness, and the Holy Spirit’s presence at crucial moments, such as the baptism of Jesus (Matthew 3:16; Mark 1:10; Luke 3:22; John 1:32).

The Holy Spirit deepens our connection with God and supports faithful living. Christ promised the Holy Spirit to guide us and remind us of His teachings (John 14:26). Let’s continue seeking the Holy Spirit in our spiritual journey. Next month, I will discuss the titles of the Holy Spirit.

Take care everyone and God bless.

Parting Words from The Publisher

“The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. (8) The LORD shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.” Psalm 121:7-8

What a wonderful and powerful declaration! Yes, the Lord will keep you from all harm and watch over your life.

In this edition, Sister Brown admonishes us not to overlook what the Lord has already placed in our midst, no matter how small. God will make it work for you. Dr. Butler urges us to master the basics of marriage. And in order to be successful, we must work to build a sure foundation. Yes, it takes much practice. But once you get the basics down, the harmony will surface! Evangelist Black-Tucker starts a new series on Pneumatology, the theological study of the Holy Spirit. It is a gift that we truly need and should never leave home without it. These articles are real page-turners and health for your soul! Don't forget to share with others.

As always, I'm very grateful for our writers and their unswerving devotion to sharing words of encouragement that will strengthen our faith in God. And remember, if you have a word of encouragement that you would like to share, please let us know. Email us at: admin@voices-of-victory.com. We will love to hear from you!

Please keep in mind that we are striving to make a difference in the lives of others. Again, we can only do so much without your help. We don't have any gimmicks or anything to offer you in exchange for your support, other than the love of God and our sincere gratitude.
